Aims and values: This school is a Church of England school that is institutionally rooted in the Christian faith. Through its corporate life it attempts to glorify God in the development of the full human potential in each person, whether governor, parent, pupil or member of staff. Its ethos of love and care and its commitment to justice are the foundation of its aims in educating the whole school community to make its proper contribution to society.

Therefore, this school:

- (a) is opposed to all forms of racism which seek to disadvantage persons on the grounds of colour, culture or ethnic origin;
- (b) will continue to re-appraise and develop its organisation and curriculum in order to create an ethos that meets the needs of all its pupils and so provide the best possible environment in which they may achieve their full potential, spiritually, morally, socially, intellectually, emotionally, and physically;
- (c) will not tolerate racist behaviour such as name calling, stereotyping of all ethnic groups, insulting remarks, offensive graffiti, undue pressure on individuals and bullying. It will not use literature that is racially biased and dependent upon stereotypes, nor will it allow the distribution of racist literature or pamphlets or permit the wearing of racially offensive symbols;
- (d) will take immediate and positive action against any racist offences whoever may be the perpetrator. Those responsible will be made aware of the school's opposition to racism and reasons will be given. Sanctions will be applied as judged appropriate according to the circumstances and having in mind a positive outcome;
- (e) in the light of the above, is aware of the need to publicise its racial equality document and code of conduct. It will keep them under review and maintain a system of monitoring their effectiveness. This critical openness should in fact arise from the place of the church school within the living Christian community which itself should be critically open in response to the message of the Gospel.

Responsibilities:

- (a) The governing body will ensure that the school complies with the duty under the Race Relations (Amendment) Act and that its policies and related strategies and procedures are implemented.
- (b) The headteacher will be responsible for implementation of the document and ensuring all staff are aware of their responsibilities and given training and support.
- (c) The headteacher will be given specific responsibility for co-ordinating racial equality across the school and for dealing with specific racist incidents.

(d) All staff will be responsible for dealing with racist incidents, challenging racial bias and stereotyping, promoting racial equality and keeping up-to-date with race relations legislation by attending training.

(e) Visitors and contractors will be made aware of their responsibility to comply with the school's document.
